Nolan Catholic Announces New Head Girl's Basketball Coach

(FORT WORTH) May 29, 2008 – Nolan Catholic High School is pleased to announce the hiring of Jason Wallen as its new Head Girl's Basketball Coach. Wallen has more than 8 years' experience coaching girl's basketball, most recently at Ennis High School where the team qualified for the playoffs in a very competitive district.

"Jason's experience and energy makes him a perfect fit for our girl's basketball program," said NCHS Athletic Director Steve Prud'homme. "We look for our girl's team to build on this year's positive momentum and be a team to contend with in TAPPS 5A."

Wallen inherits a thriving girl's basketball program at Nolan Catholic which has advanced to the playoffs the last four years, reaching the regional finals twice and state semifinals twice. This past season the team finished 28-11 making it to the TAPPS Division I regional final.

"I am very excited about the move to Nolan Catholic," said Coach Wallen. "I look forward to working with a talented group of players and can't wait to get started."

Nolan Catholic High School is a private, co-educational college preparatory institution of the Diocese of Fort Worth administered in the Marianist tradition. Nolan Catholic was founded in 1961.
